What is Hanukkah?

It is a celebration festival, that focuses on the rededication of the temple after a period of heathen occupation and defilement back in 165 BCE. The name "Hanukkah" derives from the Hebrew verb "חנך", meaning "to dedicate".

The story of Hanukkah

In 167 BCE Israel was a conquered territory of the Seleucid (Greek Macedonian) Empire. The ruler of the time was Antiochus IV Epiphanes, the successor of Alexander the Great. Unlike his predecessors, Antiochus forced Hellenization (through cultural imperialism) and persecution on to the Jewish nation.

This included:

- Appointing a Hellenistic High Priest to the Temple
- Prohibiting study of Torah
- Desecrating the alter by slaughtering pigs to Zeus Olympios

The desecration of the Temple and religious persecution was met with resistance by the Jewish people and a rebellion was started by the Judah Maccabee and his brothers - the family of High Priest Mattithias. Although the Maccabee forces were outnumbered by Antiochus, they succeeded in driving their forces out of Israel and regained control over the Temple.

All that is the backdrop to the real miracle. During the rededication of the Temple there was not enough sanctified oil for the Temple menorah to last past a single day. However, the oil continued to burn for eight days, allowing time for a fresh supply of oil to be found. This is the foundation on which the eight-day celebration of Hanukkah is based.

How do we celebrate Hanukkah?

Dates

Hanukkah is observed over 8-days from Kislev 25 to Tevet 3 (Talmud: Shabbat 21b), starting at sundown.

Notes: *Remember that the Jewish day starts at sundown.

*Use these dates to check how they line up to your calendar each year. It does change!

Candle Lighting

Candles are lit to recall miracle of eight days where the oil burned in the temple for its rededication and in commemoration of the victory of the Jewish people over their enemies.

(Talmud: Sukkah 46a)

What you will need:

- A Hanukkiah. A special 8-pronged menorah with space for a shamash (servant candle).
- 44x candles. These will get you through the 8 nights of Hanukkah.

Steps:

1. Place candles as per diagram on page 3 (right to left)
2. Light the shamash (servant candle – the one in the middle)
3. Recite passages (optional; page 4) and blessings (pages 5-6)
4. Light the candles from left to right using the shamash (page 3), while reciting the Haneirot Hallalu prayer (page 7).
5. Put the shamash back in the centre position
6. Have fun!

Tips and tricks:

- The shamash should sit higher or lower than the other candles so as to not be confused with the others.
- Oil lamps can also be used. Olive oil is preferable.
- You can have one Hanukkah for your family or many. Some traditions have one for each family member.
- Buy candles that will burn for at least 30 minutes. Some traditions say that they can be extinguished after that time, while others say they must burn through to the end. Most pre-packaged Hanukkah candles last between 30-60 minutes.
- It is a time-honoured tradition to place your Hannukiah near a window (if safe to do so), to shine light to others. Make sure it is orientated towards the outside. Keep clear of flammable material!
- On a shabbat (Friday night) light the Hanukkah before the shabbat candles. On a Saturday night light the Hanukkah during Havdalah.
- Do not use to light the room as these lights are sacred.

Haneirot Hallalu

Talmud (Soferim 20:6)

We kindle these lights to commemorate the miracles and wonders and the savings acts that You have performed for our forefathers, in those days at this time, by Your holy priests. And all throughout the eight days of Hanukkah, these lights are holy, and we are not permitted to make use of them, but only to behold them, in order to offer thanks and praise to Your great Name for Your miracles, for Your wonders and for Your salvation.

Games

Other Hanukkah customs include playing with four-sided spinning tops called dreidels and exchanging gifts. Giving tzedakah (charity) is also encouraged.

Dreidel, also called Sevivon in Hebrew, is a game traditionally played on Hanukkah using a special 4-sided spinning top. The Hebrew letters on its sides are Nun, Gimmel, Hey and Shin. In Israel, Pey is used for the word po (here) instead of a Shin (there). Together, the letters stand for the phrase:

Nes gadol hayah sham/po

“a great miracle happened there/here”

How to play spin the dreidel

1. Any number of people can play (3 or more is better)
2. Each player starts with the same number of game pieces (chocolate, nuts, etc)
3. Each player puts one piece in the pot at the beginning of each round
4. Spin the dreidel!
5. If it lands on:

Nun נ – Nothing. The player does nothing and the next player spins.

Gimmel ג – Get! The player gets the whole pot! All players then put in another piece.

Hey ה – Half. The player gets half of the pieces in the pot. If there are an odd number of pieces, the player rounds up.

Shin ש / Pey פ – Sorry. The player must share their winnings by placing one piece into the pot.

Food

In another allusion to the Hanukkah miracle, traditional Hanukkah foods are fried in oil. Potato pancakes (known as latkes) and jam-filled donuts (sufganiyot) are particularly popular in many Jewish households.

Chag Hanukkah Sameach!
